Sir,

I the undersigned beg to bring the following few lines for your kind and sympathetic consideration and early favourable orders

I am a Clerk by designation and have been entrusted with the work of both the Accountant and the Cashier in addition I have been discharging the duties entrusted to me to the best of my abilities

Eversince the conversion of the Municipality from Town into City/from 1-1-48, the work of the Cash Branch has become very heavy As a cashier, great responsibility is shouldered on me unlike the other clerks working in the office Dealing in cash is a hard task and as I consider it is a matter of life and death
